

PROFESSIONAL CONFERENCE

SAVE THE DATE:

Reducing Risk: Understanding the Adolescent Brain

Conference Faculty:

Conducting this training will be the Director and staff of Addiction Medicine Services, Western Psychiatric Institute & Clinic, UPMC, including two Commonwealth of PA approved Student Assistance Program (CAT) trainers.

- Cele Fichter DeSando, MPM
- Marge Modro, MS CPS (CAT)
- Susan Tarasevich, Ed. (CAT)

Professional Conference

9:00 am—3:00 pm

Choose from 4 locations:

- April 7th - State College, PA
Ramada Inn
- April 14th - Stroudsburg, PA
Monroe County Safety Center
- April 20th - Youngwood, PA
Westmoreland County Community College
- April 23rd - Clarion, PA
Structural Modular, Inc.

Register at: www.tobaccofreeallegheeny.org

Cost: FREE

Includes lunch & refreshments.

Complete list of CEUs available on registration page at: www.tobaccofreeallegheeny.org

Who should attend?

The conference focuses on the needs of teachers, administrators, counselors, social workers, student assistance professionals, SAP liaisons therapists, county and state officials

- Wondering why teens and adults don't see eye to eye?
- Searching for better strategies to protect adolescents?
- Looking for effective ways to prevent alcohol, tobacco & other drug use?

This conference is sponsored and endorsed by:

For more information & to register:

Go to: www.tobaccofreeallegheeny.org